

CONSTITUTION ASSOCIATION MONTHLY DINNER MEETING

ESCAPE FROM BERKELEY... THE JOURNEY AWAY FROM LIBERALISM

by

Howard Hyde, Author, Editor and Publisher: Howard Hyde tells how he overcame the influence and indoctrination of radical leftism in his hometown in the 1960s and 70s and became instead an evangelist for Capitalism, free markets, low taxes, the Constitution, and America. He deconstructs the radical student movement and then, by collecting his most popular published articles of the past several years into a single volume, presents a conservative and patriotic citizen-economist's analysis of subjects as diverse as health care, employment, immigration, climate change and foreign policy.

The Constitution Association meets the first Saturday of each month, except January and July it is the second Saturday.

WHAT IS THE CONSTITUTION ASSOCIATION?

The Constitution Association believes in strength in numbers. We have filled the city council chambers in Menifee and Murrieta over property rights issues, and a school board meeting in Temecula to support a 6 year old girl who was silenced in class for daring to speak about the Bible during a presentation.

The Constitution Association's mission includes impacting elections both locally and nationally through a system of chapters around the country, by creating a powerful presence on the internet, and by promoting Republic Review. As division spreads among Americans, we believe we should work together through what we have in common. . . A firm reliance on Divine Providence, and the understanding that the United States Constitution was the blueprint that created the greatest republic in history.
